BOIL WATER RESCINDED: NEWPORT CITY LIMITS ONLY

Newport Utilities has collected and tested water samples throughout its service area and concluded that all water within the City of Newport's limits (highlighted in red) is once again safe to drink. The Boil Water Alert has been rescinded for all customers within Newport City limits at this time. All customers outside the City of Newport's limits shall remain under the Boil Water Alert until further notice.
